Messrs Sugandaraj and Chennaveer raj are two Pallegar stipendiaries of the Hagilwadi family (descendents of Group VII Kenchangudda - given at page 3 of Mr. T. Clarke's printed memo of 23.4.1877), each in receipt of a stipend of Rs 80.

2. The brothers have also the following landed properties.

Hagilwadi village

These lands measuring 466 ac 14 gcents with an assessment of Rs 430-8-0 in the aggregate and valued at Rs 4,700/- have been held as security for repayment of the Special loan of Rs 7000/- ~~sanctioned~~ granted to them at 4 % in addition to a monthly payment of Rs 80/- from their pension.

3. The brothers not having paid the land revenue for some time, the arrears amount to Rs 1417-5-0 up to the end of 1912-13. One of them, Mr. Sugandaraj represented to the Revenue Comm: that coercive steps may not.

not be taken in recovery thereof but that he may be permitted to pay out of their stipends drawn by the two brothers in monthly instalments of Rs 40/ for 17 months in addition to those already being recovered @ Rs 80/- in adjustment of the special loan referred to above, and thereafter @ Rs 120. The Rev Commr. referred this request to the Dy Commissioner for action.

4 The Dy Commr. in his communication to Comptroller asks him to realise from the family stipends the promised instalments until the arrears of revenue are fully satisfied. The Khazana Bakshi simply forwards the letter with the suggestion that if this recovery is also made total deduction from the pension of Rs 160/- is Rs 120/-. and ~~he does not state whether he~~ in his second letter solicits orders of Govt on the subject.

5. The unadjusted amount of the special loan referred to above was Rs 1,655-9-0 on 30.6.13 and the period within which it can be wiped off at the present rate of repayment is calculated to be roughly 22 months from July 1913 i.e. at the end of April 1915.

6. If as suggested by the Dy Commr a further recovery of Rs 40 commencing from Feby 1914 to the end of April 1915, it takes about 22 months.

months from Feb^y 1914 for the Land Revenue arrears to be fully satisfied, it being assumed that the revenue for 1913-14 & future years will not be allowed to fall in arrear or in other words both the balance of the loan & arrear of revenue will ~~have been~~ be fully satisfied at the end of Nov^r 1915 or at the ~~the~~ end of the calendar year 1915.

Thus $\frac{3}{4}$ of the stipends paid to the two brothers will be under recovery for at least two years, viz 1914-1915.

7 It may be seen from the perusal of the Rev^l Comm^r's communication to the Dy Comm^r, that the petitioner is only one Mr. Suganda raj & not both the brothers. The stipends having been separately & independently registered in the brothers' names, it is not clear how the recovery can be made from the stipend of Mr. Chennaveeraraj without his express consent.

8 No precedent can be mentioned in the matter of recovery of more than half from such stipends even with the stipendiaries' consent. In cases where there are no such consent section 11 of the Pensions Act prohibits any recovery being made from the Pallegar pensions.

9. The points for orders are: —

1) Whether any orders are required on the Khazana Bakshi's reference;

2) If so, whether sanction for realization of the instalments required to be made may be given only on the representation of one of the brothers.

3) If more than half the stipends be under recovery, whether there will not be further complications by the Land Rev for 1913–14 & future years being allowed to remain ~~arrears~~ in arrear.
